

Glorify The KING of Kings

Such an exciting time of year, when Santa comes to town:
once born in a lowly manger
he now flies all around;
bearing gifts for the whole wide world –
for every girl and boy;
pulled by his eight little reindeer he brings such peace and joy.

Heaven and Shepherds look on while we enjoy this cute ‘god’, who down the smallest chimney slides –
a feat for human bod’!
Leaving gold, myrrh (lots of presents!),
this ‘idol’ flies away
to appear in millions of homes,
in just a single day!

It’s quite clear to see;
and so many are pleased to behold;
how Santa’s magic sleigh and deer put Jesus Christ on hold.
Does this awesome trick that Santa’s done gain more fans each year?
Oh yes, of those who won’t esteem
the Word of God they hear.

Well, folks, it’s not all bad.
Why, it’s not even Santa’s fault;
the myth began a goodly story –
now the lies should halt.
The account about the man who became our Santa Clause, is simple, moral and quite fine –
the magic is the fraud.

Where once there was (perhaps) a godly man,
who gave much to the poor, today St. Nick’s kind charity lays tarnished in a store; and Satan rubs his hands in glee to watch Christ's Own endorse Santa performing miracles – without God's help of course.

Can Santa heal a broken heart, revive a weary mind?
Did St. Nick cure the dying or give sight back to the blind?
Have we turned our backs on Jesus, profaning our belief?
Do we, careless, demote God's Son and make all Heaven weep?

Shall we look for presents and let man's traditions best please us?
Then who can this day proclaim,
"I live my life for Christ Jesus"?

Confess! Repent!
Exalt and praise God's Son before and above St. Nick.
GLORIFY THE KING of kings!
(renounce the devil's trick)
