

Step By Glorious Step

Step by step,
by glorious step,
my forward going is Thine:
no matter where the road shall lead,
no matter when the time;
glorious step by glorious step,
on feet no longer mine.

Step by step,
by glorious step,
a pilgrim's pathway to Thee:
when glen and dale can only mean a rise where I shall see,
glorious step by glorious step,
Your arms outstretched for me.

Step by step,
by glorious step,
You share Your heavenly view:
'Everlasting Sanctuary'
where all is pure and true.
Glorious step by glorious step,
I find my home in You.
